

e-Boletim

ALESDE

Asociación Latinoamericana de Estudios Socioculturales del Deporte

e-Bulletin n. 05, Year 2, October 2012

In this fifth edition of ALESDE's e-bulletin we bring to you:

- 1. The third edition of ALESDE's Journal;
- 2. The third ALESDE Meeting (Concepción, Chile, 2012);
- 3. News of the International Sociology of Sport Association (ISSA);
- 4. Masters in Sport Management of West Virginia University (WVU);
- 5. Contributions to the ALESDE's e-bulletin.

1. THE THIRD EDITION OF ALESDE'S JOURNAL

In continuity of the intentions of the Association, the ALESDE's journal reaches its third issue in October 2012. With issues available twice a year, its aim is to divulge the social and cultural studies of sport in Latin America. In this way we invite you to register, submit papers (in Portuguese, Spanish and English – check the editorial policy here) and/or integrate our editorial board of the Journal. More information can be found at www.ser.ufpr.br/alesde.

2. THE THIRD ALESDE MEETING (CONCEPCIÓN, CHILE, 2012)

In less than two weeks begins the Third ALESDE Meeting! The 2012 edition will be held from October 24 to October 26 at the Concepción University (Chile). With the theme “Sport and physical activity in the integration process of Latin America”, this year's event will have the presence of many parts of the world, which will discuss their papers included in fifteen themes. At the event's website is possible to access the preliminary program, as well as the information about the organizing and scientific commissions, sponsors and touristic tips from Santiago of Chile to Concepción. Guarantee your online inscription for the event, according to the three categories of participation or contact the event organizers and clarify all your doubts! We welcome all the participants of the Third ALESDE meeting!

3. NEWS OF THE INTERNATIONAL SOCIOLOGY OF SPORT ASSOCIATION (ISSA)

In the last e-bulletin issue we proudly announced the inclusion of the ALESDE's vice-president, Prof. Dr. Wanderley Marchi Júnior, in the editorial board of the International Review for the Sociology of Sport (IRSS), the ISSA's journal. Glad with this news, which is very important to the Latin American community that focus in the social and cultural studies of sport. The ALESDE is proud to announce one more fact: the inclusion of your vice-president also in the ISSA Extended Board for the period of 2012-2015. The invite was made by Prof. Dr. Elisabeth Pike, president of ISSA, which represents one more great accomplishment to ALESDE. The Association counts on one more Latin American representative member in the direction of the institution, with Prof. Dr.

Miguel Cornejo, president of ALESDE. We would like to congratulate Prof. Dr. Wanderley Marchi Júnior for this international recognition, becoming the first Brazilian member of the ISSA Extended Board and highlight the importance of this divulging and expanding work of ALESDE's actions with the international academic and scientific community, as an inspiration and encouragement to researchers in all Latin America!

4. MASTERS IN SPORTS MANAGEMENT OF WEST VIRGINIA UNIVERSITY (WVU)

Have you considered coursing a Master's degree online? The West Virginia University (WVU) offers the online Master's degree in Sports Management of the School of Physical Activity and Sports Sciences. Prestigious since 1981, the online Master's in Sports Management has as an aim to broad the professional qualification of students across the world in the following knowledge areas: sports marketing, event administration and organization, generating resources for sport, among other themes. Lectured in Spanish by professors of the United States, Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, El Salvador, Spain, Porto Rico and Venezuela, the course counts on 36 hours in the following disciplines: the process of sport management, international governance of sport, sociological aspects of sport, investigation methods in the sportive market, administration and organization of sportive facilities, generation of resources to sport, history and philosophy of sport and legal and political aspects of sport. For more information, access the program at the WVU website and wait for the inscriptions opening!

5. CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE ALESDE'S E-BULLETIN

The ALESDE is happy to share the informations about the activities related to the Association. We will gladly include your news in our e-bulletin. We seek for ways to improve the communication and answer our members. We encourage you to send your comments and suggestions. Please send any comment and information to the editors of our e-bulletin: Prof. Juliana Vlastuin (BRA), at: vlastuin6@yahoo.com.br and Prof. Carlos Matus (CHL), at: carlosmatus18@gmail.com.